

Georgia Engineers Week
2022 GSPE Engineer of the Year Awards
DEADLINE: November 19, 2021
Nomination Form

Purpose of the Award

To honor licensed engineers who have made outstanding contributions to the engineering profession, the public welfare, and/or humankind.

The Awards

The names of the awards presented shall be the GSPE Engineer of the Year; GSPE Lifetime Achievement in Engineering; GSPE Engineer of the Year in Construction, Education, Government, Industry, or Private Practice; and GSPE Young Engineer of the Year. The GSPE Engineer of the Year will be selected as the highest scoring winner from the other GSPE Engineer of the Year Categories.

The Georgia Society of Professional Engineers (GSPE) coordinates the Engineer of the Year awards, which are judged by the Engineering Council of Birmingham. This acknowledgement of engineers is made possible by Georgia engineering organizations joining together to honor individuals in the Georgia engineering community.

The awardee in each category will be honored during the 2022 GSPE Engineer of the Year Awards recognition. The specific date and format (virtual or in-person) of recognition is to be determined; nominees will be notified when that information is available. The award will consist of an engraved plaque carrying an appropriate citation.

Eligibility for the Award

Nominees must be submitted by agencies, companies, organizations, and universities. The selection process is based on ratings received for the engineer's contributions to the profession, the public welfare, and/or humankind as listed under the purpose of the award. Each nominee must hold a professional engineering license in a U.S. state or territory and must be a resident of the State of Georgia.
